W ☐ (1) The JOT Wives' Briefing was conducted on 29 August for persons, including the C/JOTP and two members of his staff. The program was eliminated with the remarks of the DTR on the significance of the JOT program.

☐ (2) On 3 September the CIA Introduction was conducted for persons.

(3) At the request of ☐ C/MPD/PO, a five-minute talk on the Mission, Functions, and Organization of CIA was prepared for the use of the DDCI in the forthcoming briefing of the top-ranking military personnel officers.

W & C (4) The Departmental Briefing has been well received. It was commended by the Department of State in its biannual report to the President's Board of Consultants.

W 2 new programs with same staff ☐ (5) With this report, ☐ rounds out his first year as Chief, Special Orientation Faculty. During this year two new programs were introduced: Special VIP Briefings in French, and the JOT Wives' Briefing. In addition, the FSO Briefing has been expanded to a three-hour program conducted as an integral part of every FSO course, and much the same briefing is now given at NSA in its Senior Officers Course.

B. Intelligence Orientation

W (1) Intelligence Orientation #13 began on 3 September. ☐ students are enrolled, ☐ of whom are JOT's. This is the largest enrollment since September 1956.

(2) The loss of a day because of Labor Day and the incorporation of the DD/S Exhibit into the schedule have necessitated the temporary dropping of lectures on Security Support, Medical Support, Personnel Support, Finance Support, and the Cable Secretariat. It is expected that the DD/S Exhibit will supply the material thus omitted.
